(1887 - 1964) <sup>1</sup>

Longwy

Biography

MARCHAL was born in Longwy.

He became sténographe dactylographe and married Marie PARISON. The couple had two children born 1912 resp. 1913 in Pont-Saint-Vincent (Meurthe et Moselle).

During WWI MARCHAL served in the French military forces.

After 1918 he still resided in Meurthe et Moselle until 1936 when he moved to Brussels.

In 1937 he took up residence in Luxembourg for about a couple of years. During his presence in Luxembourg he made three inventions as evidenced by three corresponding Luxembourg patents.

In 1939 he went back to France and finally settled in Maisons Laffitte (Seine et Oise) where he died in 1964.)

MARCHAL's successive places of residence, according to his patents, were the following:

1924-1935	Meurthe et Moselle
1936	Nancy
1937	Brussels
1937-1938	Luxembourg
1939-1942	Angers (Maine et Loire)
1943-1951	Seine et Oise
