Biography

Théodore Aloïse DECKER, son of Mertin DECKER (Cotons-Weber, cotton weaver), was born in Ettelbrück in 1836.

He became a priest and occupied the following posts in the Luxembourg Catholic Church: ²

vicaire à Clervaux (1860-1965)

curé à Blaschette (1865-1871)

curé à Mondercange (1871-1914)

DECKER made two inventions, but he did not apply for corresponding patents in Luxembourg.

Aloïse DECKER died in Bettembourg in 1915, aged 79.
